Gorgeous Glory

*****

My smile can create an oasis in the desert
It can give subsistence to trees in the forest
It can be the sweet song of a cuckoo at rest
Reverberating chorus of mountains at crest

My smile can wipe from eyes tears of sorrow
Allaying apprehensions fuelled for tomorrow
It comforts wailing hearts with healing power
It causes genuine joy to all with its splendour

My smile can enliven a rainbow in cloudy sky
Enthralling all aesthetic eyes with grace high
It can cause the cloud to greet me with rain
Offering remarkable relief to adversity's pain

The sun at dawn smiles at me bright-eyed
At dusk he bids an adieu to me sad-eyed
The moon sends beams to kiss me in style
She feels sad to be out of my glowing smile

How does my dark colour cause repulsions
When my splendid smiles cause attractions
The stars at night twinkle to study my story
God dwells in my heart in all gorgeous glory

History of Hypocrisy

*****

How can history be a wealth of pride
When poor people are taken for a ride

All rulers allowed cruelty to take stride
The Divine Law was indeed kept aside

Many sweet smiles flourished in bloom
Were plucked to in cruel ways for gloom
Grief grinds all glistening lives with doom
Our history never shows significant boom

People were buried alive to live in tombs
Christ's were crucified in mothers' wombs
Devilish despots slayed people as lambs
Many lovely lives were ended with bombs

They were against the Almighty in thought
They changed many people's thinking a lot
Constructing large temples without devotion
Their plunder went on without any objection

We still repose faith in treacherous leaders
Thinking that they are all our future leaders
They are very sinful inside and holy outside
They always turn all our lives down upside

The world radiates resplendent splendour
When all peoples cherish smiles of wonder
Let us strive to keep selfish leaders asunder
To keep all our prosperity away from plunder

My Scintilla Story

*****

Basking in our ancestors' glittering glory
I captivate a vision of scripting my story

Illustrious images jostle for eager entry
Embarking on all exploration in mystery

Crowded visages often cloud my mind
Choices are not within reach of the find
Time ticking never finds my picking blind
Crowding clamour pilfers peace of mind

Resplendent refuge is glory of my lineage
Each image is stored for fantastic foliage
My part in genealogy conveys a message
Idiosyncrasy is quit for a collective image

My story is not superior to collective glory
I am contented with my part in whole story

Oratory of Serenity

Dreams dwelling dry
On the brink of despair
Can be dazzlingly damp
Sprouting in all splendour
With blooming bowers
Blossoming flowers

Smiles stunningly sheeny
With glistening grandeur
Savour serenity's flavour
Favouring many a lover
Leaping in strides of joy
With oratory of silence

Tremendous tapestry
Is woven into chemistry
Of two entwined bodies
Love glances in mystery
With a fresh leaf of history
Love's scintillating story
Treasures mirth's memory
