

AIM & SCOPE

Voyager is an international Online and print journal that encourages young scientists and scholars to publish peer review research, review articles and short communications in the field of Life Sciences or biological sciences i.e. Zoology, Botany, Microbiological, Ecology, Environmental Sciences Ethnobiology, Bioinformatics, Biodiversity and Conservation, Genetics, Molecular Biology, Histology, Immunology, Development biology, Toxicology, Pharmacology, Veterinary Science, Biochemistry and all fields of applied Life Sciences.

This journal is published twice a year in July and December. The emphasis is on publishing high quality articles and providing open access to the researches i.e. freely available without charge to the user or institutions. Journal is certified by MSME with an impact factor – IJ IF 3.8919.