Message From The Secretary's Desk

Sen Group of Institutions has been championing the noble cause of women's empowerment through education for 125 years now. Education is best defined as fearless self-expression and constructive exchange of thoughts & ideas. What better way to achieve that than a bouquet of articles showcasing the ideas/ expressions/ thoughts of S.N. Sen Post Graduate College family members? A forthright, egalitarian, progressive society ensures justice by growing through the questioning and challenging of the dominant discourses of its time by educated empathetic minds. Hopefully, the ideas and thoughts collated in this edition too shall invoke widespread discussion, reflection & introspection among higher education think tanks, social influencers, and the public alike.

At Sen Education Group, we heartily thank, appreciate, and congratulate everyone involved in making this edition see the light of day. It is an extremely commendable effort, from the literary contributors to the advisory board, editorial board, and publisher, and warrants countless words of praise.
